Reduced—Domestic Milling

Demand Is Strong.

CHICAGO, Aug. 8.—Improved export demand, together with prospective falling off in the domestic movement from rural sources, had a bullish effect on the wheat market to-day. Prices closed at \$1.23 to \$1.24, and December \$1.25 to \$1.26. Corn gained $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$ and oats $\frac{1}{4}$ to $\frac{1}{2}$. Provisions finished from 2 to 2 1/2 cents to advance.

A good domestic milling demand was a factor in the higher prices for wheat. On the other hand, an increase of almost 10,000,000 bushels in the visible supply had a depressing influence, which, however, short lived, as the grain already had been hedged. Furthermore, receipts at primary points to-day did not come up to the volume expected, and there were predictions that arrivals this week would be reduced 10 per cent. The market closed at the top figures of the day.

Corn and oats averaged higher in sympathy with wheat and as a result of the fact that the German crop was severely damaged by drought. Packers' selling caused a late break in provisions, more than offsetting the effect of higher values for wheat.

Germany purchased 500,000 bushels of the 1,000,000 bushels of wheat sold in yesterday's cash market. Germany was also reported to have arranged for credits for the purchase of 10,000,000 bushels of grain in this country. Other continental countries took the remaining 500,000 bushels. The export trade was interested in a continuing surplus wheat at 1,000,000 tons. Southwestern offerings of wheat were smaller and premiums higher. Sales of corn were estimated at 400,000 to 500,000 bushels.
